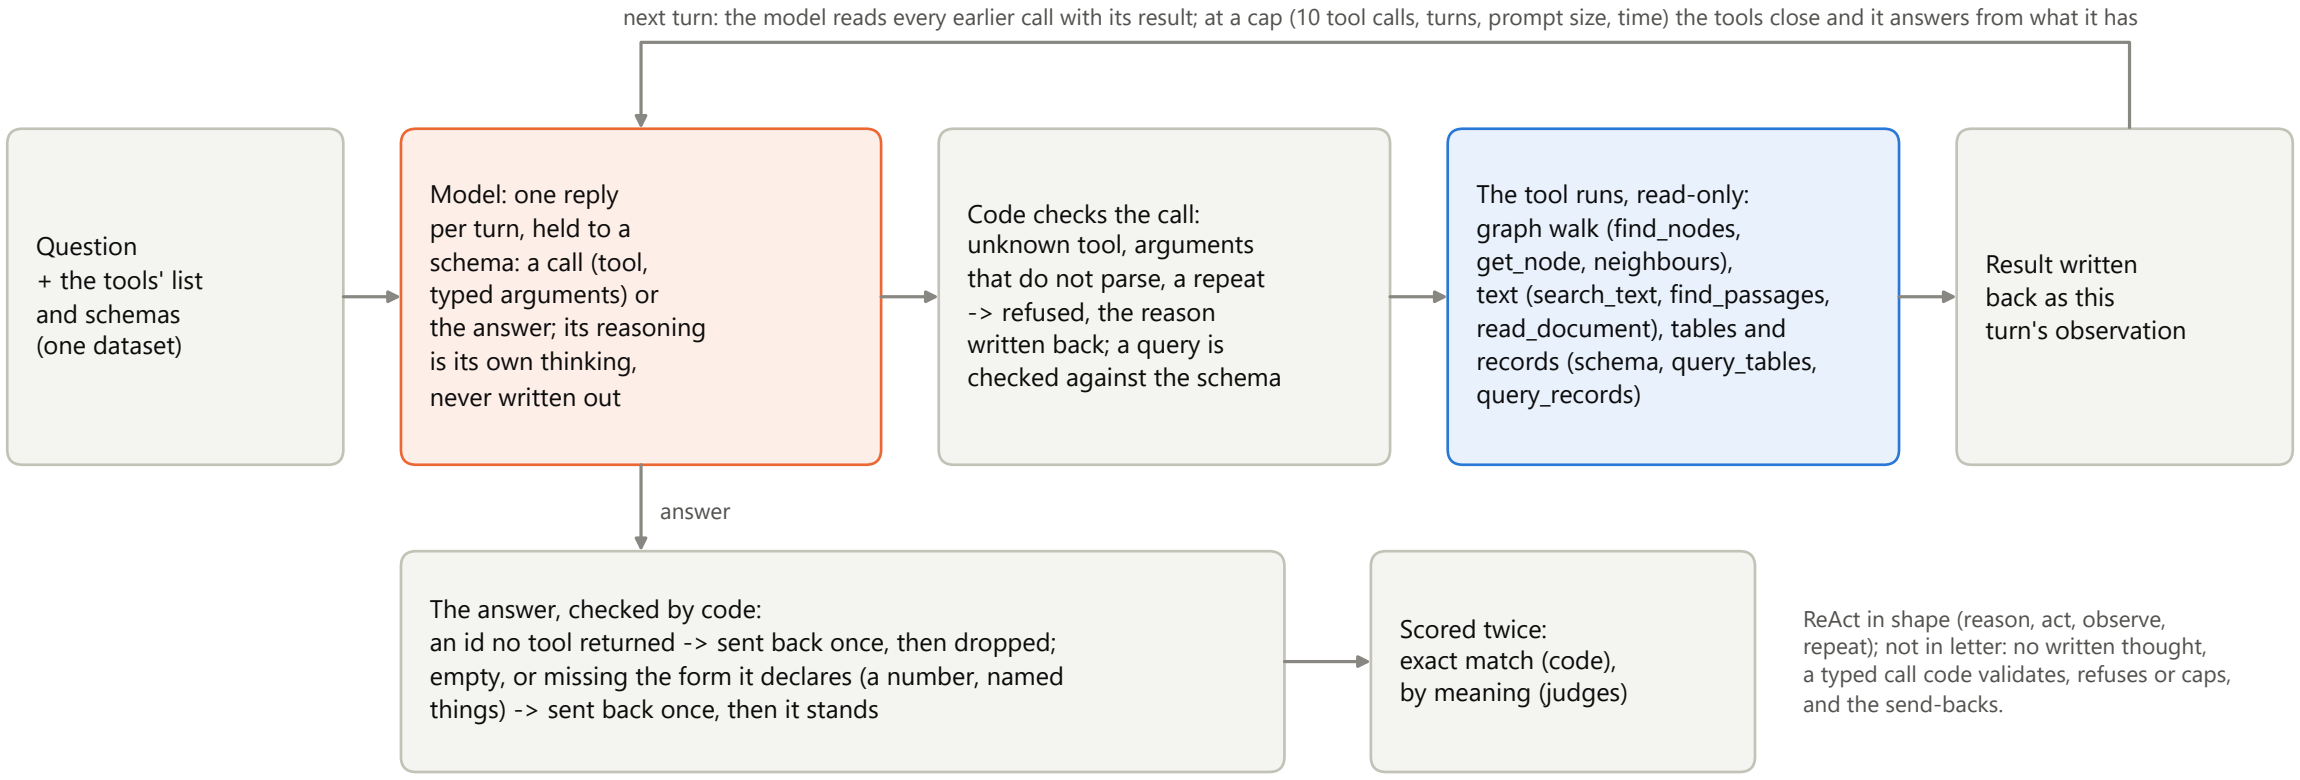
The agent loop: the model proposes one typed tool call per turn, code checks and runs it, the result is observed, until the answer


R135-R170, one question. Orange: the one box that proposes; blue: the tools over the graph, the text and the staged tables; neutral: code that decides and contains.